

INSTITUTO DE ÉTICAS APLICADAS
PONTIFICIA UNIVERSIDAD CATÓLICA DE CHILE

INSTITUTO DE ÉTICAS APLICADAS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN APPLIED ETHICS

The Instituto de Éticas Aplicadas (Institute for Applied Ethics) of the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile is inviting interested candidates to apply for a tenure-track position (Assistant or Associate Professor), starting March 1st, 2025. Applicants must demonstrate a strong capacity to work in an interdisciplinary team, develop an independent line of research, and teach applied ethics preferably in thematic areas such as: environmental ethics, university ethics (academic and scientific integrity), corporate ethics, communication ethics, social ethics and ethic and artificial intelligence.

The Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile is among the top three institutions in the QS Ranking for Latin American Universities. The university is deeply committed to fostering equal opportunities and building an inclusive, diverse, and fraternal academic community. It is equally dedicated to promoting the academic development of both male and female scholars. In this regard, applications from women are encouraged.

Application requirements:

- PhD (completed or graduation in process) in applied Ethics or related areas.
- Experience developing independent and interdisciplinary research.
- Publications on topics of applied ethics related to the thematic areas of this call.
- Experience in teaching in applied ethics or related areas, according to the stage of the academic career of the applicant.
- Proficiency in Spanish and English (it is expected that foreign candidates may acquire the required level of Spanish within 3 years)
- Identification with the principles and mission of the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile.

Selection criteria:

- Academic trajectory and quality of research.
- Quality of his or her teaching.
- Academic references.
- Potential to develop interdisciplinary teaching and research.
- Selected candidates should be available to give a class, a research seminar, and to participate in an interview with the selection committee.

Application materials (PDF format in either Spanish or English):

1. Research statement (2 pages): applicants are asked to describe their research goals in the short and long term, and to indicate potential collaborative networks in Chile and other countries.
2. Teaching statement (2 pages): candidates are asked to describe their teaching experience and teaching philosophy, including a summary of a potential applied ethics course in their area of interest to be taught to undergraduate or graduate students.
3. Curriculum Vitae, organized in the following format:
  - i. Personal information: name, e-mail address and webpage (if available).
  - ii. Education: list of academic and professional degrees, indicating the granting institutions and their dates (please attach academic certificates).
  - iii. Research:
    - a. Full list of publications (WOS, SCOPUS, and others), book chapters, and books. Among them highlight the three most relevant to applied ethics, and upload PDF copies of the same.
    - b. Participation in research projects, indicating their role in the project, start and end dates, and institution.
    - c. Teaching experience, indicating the institution, course, and nature of the participation (primary instructor, teaching assistant, etc.).
    - d. Other: funding and grants, awards and honors, language proficiency, computer skills, and any other information that may be deemed relevant.
4. Three letters of recommendation submitted directly by the remittent.

Application process:

Applicants should send all application materials to eticasaplicadas@uc.cl (Prof. Claudia Labarca) Recommendation letters should be submitted directly by the remittent to the same address. Deadline for Applications: September 30th, 2024 at 17:00 hrs. Further information can be asked to the provided email address.

Foreigners selected for the position need to obtain a working visa at their local Chilean Consulate General to be formally incorporated into the University.